Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 31, to Tuesday September 3, 1751.

Conſtantinople, Auguſt 4.

MAJOR Obreſkoy, the new Ruſſian Miniſter to this Court, arrived here on the 15th of laſt Month from Petersbourg: He has already had his Audience of the Grand Vizier, and imparted to him the laſt Declaration made by the Empreſs his Miſtreſs, in relation to the Affairs of Sweden; which Declaration has been highly approved of at this Court, and gives univerſal Satisfaction. The Havock made here, and in this Neighbourhood, for theſe two Months paſt, by the Plague, is ſcarcely to be credited, there having, according to the neareſt Computation, died of that Diſtemper only, upwards of ſixty Thouſand Perſons.

Naples, Aug. 14. On the 29th paſt died M. Roſſi, one of the King's Privy Counſellors, to which Poſt the young Prince of Cariati has ſucceeded. Laſt Week the Duke delle Prata, and a Sicilian Gentleman, were put under Arreſt for having fought a Duel, occaſioned by a Quarrel they had at Gaming. On the 2d Inſtant the young Chevalier d'Altemps was, by Order of the Government, committed to Priſon, for having, jointly with his Brother, mortally wounded an Officer of the Criminal Court, whilſt he was intimating to them their Arreſt by Order of the ſaid Court. The ſaid Gentleman, being ſenſible of the great Offence he had thereby committed, threw himſelf furiouſly out of a Window, and was thereby dangerouſly hurt; on which Account he was removed from the Common Jail to his own Houſe. His Brother, a Knight of Malta, took Refuge in the Convent of the Olivetan Fryars. On the 6th a Criminal, who had made his Eſcape from the Common Jail to a Church, was, by Conſent of the Court of Rome, taken out of it, and reſtored to Juſtice, in order to receive his Puniſhment. On the 7th ſeveral Delinquents, who had eſcaped to Rome, were brought back, agreeable to a mutual Agreement ſubſiſting between this Court and that of Rome, to deliver up their reſpective Criminals.

Rome, Aug. 16. On the 6th Inſtant the Pope went to viſit, for a ſecond Time, Cardinal Valenti his Secretary of State, who is ſtill confined to his Bed by the Gout. On the 12th and 14th, Cardinal Portocarrero, and the Duke of Ceresano, had an Audience of the Pope, to communicate the Contents of ſome Diſpatches they had received from their reſpective Courts of Spain and Naples. The French Ambaſſador having compleated his Viſits to the College of Cardinals, they, on the 28th, began to return theirs to the ſaid Ambaſſador.

Florence, Aug. 20. By the laſt Letters from Modena we hear, that the Duke and the Hereditary Prince, attended by their reſpective Retinues, were on the Point of taking a Journey from Modena to Maſſa, to viſit the new Road, and to view the Works that are carrying on at Lavenza, in order to make that Port convenient for ſmall Ships, and other Trading Veſſels. On the 15th Inſtant, the Senator Guadagne ſet out for Bologna, with Inſtructions from this Government, to uſe his utmoſt Endeavours to induce that Republick to compleat, on their Part, the new Road that is making from Florence thither, which, without their Concurrence, will remain unfiniſhed. A few Days ago the Lord and Lady Killmorray arrived here with their Son and Daughter. Lord Bruce and Lord Charlemont are alſo arrived here from Rome; ſo that there are upwards of thirty Engliſh Travellers here, and many others are expected ſoon.

Breſlau, Aug. 27. The Troops that are to form a Camp in this Province, are all in Motion; they conſiſt of the Regiments of Cuiraſſiers of Buddenbrock, Geſler, Rochau, Kyau and Bornſtadt; the Regiments of Dragoons of Naſſau and Schwerin; the Regiments of Huſſars of Wartemberg, Wechmar, Szecely and Vippach; and the Regiments of Foot of Margrave Henry, Kalſow, Leſtewitz, Hautcharmois, Schultz, Treſkow, Kreitzen, Brandeis and Sers. All theſe Regiments will be encamped by Sunday next, in the Neighbourhood of Ohlau, where 'tis thought they will remain at leaſt a Fortnight, during which Time the King propoſes to review them. His Majeſty's Head Quarters, and thoſe of the Princes his Brothers, will be at Marſchwitz, where every Thing is ready for their Reception.

Vienna, Aug. 28. The whole Court is at preſent at Hollitſch, where the Emperor and Prince Charles of Lorrain intend ſtaying till the End of next Month, in order to take the Diverſion of Hunting; but the Empreſs Queen, Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, and the young Imperial Family, are expected at Schonbrun towards the End of next Week. The laſt Advices we received from Croatia inform us, that the late Diſturbances in that Province were entirely at an End, the Mutineers having all returned to their different Employments, except their Chiefs, who, for Fear of meeting with their juſt Deſerts, had taken Shelter in the Territories of the Grand Signior, after having been refuſed the Protection they ſollicited of the Baſhaw of Boſnia. This Court having been informed, that the Plague rages with great Violence at Conſtantinople, and being apprehenſive henſive leaſt the ſame ſhould ſpread itſelf into Hungary, has ſent Orders to the Commiſſaries of Health eſtabliſhed on the Frontiers of that Country, to uſe all imaginable Precautions to prevent the ſame. A large Quantity of Bullets, Bombs, Granades, and other warlike Ammunition, were ſent away from hence a few Days ago for the Fortreſſes of Brinn and Olmutz in Moravia. On Tueſday laſt we received the melancholy News of a Fire breaking out at Gundramſtorff, a ſmall Town in the Neighbourhood of Luxembourg, which ſoon reduced to Aſhes about 40 Houſes, and the principal Church of that Place.

Dreſden, Aug. 29. M. Kalkoen, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General to this Court, was laſt Week ſeized with an Apoplectick Fit, but it was not attended with any fatal Conſequences. General Arnim, who has reſided for ſome Years at the Court of Ruſſia, in Quality of Miniſter Plenipotentiary from this Court, is daily expected here from Peterſbourg. The laſt Letters received here from Dantzick ſay, that the Magiſtrates of that City have publiſhed a Declaration, couched in very ſtrong Terms, wherein they inſiſt upon their Right of preſerving their ancient Privileges; from which they abſolutely declare they will never depart.

Copenhagen, Aug. 29. The King having engaged himſelf, by a late Treaty with the Emperor of Morocco, to make that Prince a conſiderable preſent of Artillery and Ammunition, a Veſſel is ordered to be got ready for carrying the ſame accordingly. The Baron de Juel, the new Ambaſſador from this Court to that of Sweden, ſet out from hence a few Days ago for Stockholm. In Conformity to the King's Orders, 150 Men have been drafted out of the Troops of this Garriſon, who are to be ſent to Elſeneur, in order to be employed in erecting a new Battery of Cannon near the Fort of Cronenbourg.

Berlin, Aug. 31. On Wedneſday laſt the King, accompanied by the Prince of Pruſſia, ſet out from hence for Sileſia, and was followed the next Day by the Princes Henry and Ferdinand, and by ſeveral of the Nobility and General Officers. In paſſing by Cuſtrin his Majeſty reviewed the Regiment of Dragoons of Count Rothenbourg, and that of Foot of Bonin. During his Stay in Sileſia the Troops in that Province are to form a Camp in the Neighbourhood of Neiſs. By an Expreſs juſt arrived here from Great Glogau we are informed, that the King arrived there on Saturday laſt in perfect Health, and reviewed the ſame Day the Regiment of Du Moulin, which is there in Garriſon.

Hague, Sept. 7. On Tueſday laſt his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange ſet out from hence for Aix la Chapelle; the next Day the Margrave of Baden Dourlach followed his Serene Highneſs, and on Thurſday the Duke of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttel took the ſame Route. Before the Prince of Orange's Departure he diſpoſed of the Poſt of Marſhal of the Lower Quarter of the Province of Utrecht in Favour of Baron d'Amerongen. This Day her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange received an Expreſs from Aix la Chapelle, by which we learn, that his Serene Highneſs reached Maeſtricht Yeſterday Noon, and was ſaluted at his Entrance by a tripple Diſcharge of the Cannon upon the Ramparts; ſoon after which he received the Compliments of the Magiſtrates in a Body; and, having dined with the Baron d'Aylva, Governor of that City, his Serene Highneſs ſet out in the Afternoon for Aix la Chapelle, which Place he reached about Ten that Evening, being eſcorted by 160 Palatine Horſe, who came two Leagues from that City to meet him. His Serene Highneſs was received at his Entrance into Aix la Chapelle, in the ſame Manner he had been at Maeſtricht, and, upon his Arrival at his Lodgings, found a Company of Grenadiers poſted at his Gate to ſerve him for a Guard. The ſame Night his Serene Highneſs was complimented upon his ſafe and happy Arrival by the Magiſtrates in a Body, and by all the principal Perſons of Diſtinction in the City.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, September 2.

Orders for the Court's going out of Mourning on Sunday next the 8th Inſtant, for his late Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.
